Cranford Park

Popular places to explore

If you're a fan of retail therapy, you'll find over 80 shops, as well as a range of restaurants, at Ealing Broadway – an eight-minute train ride away – and over 400 shops and services at Westfield White City – just 32 minutes by public transport. Better still, the Pavilion in Uxbridge and the traditional, open-air Southall Market – home to food, clothes, antiques and electronics' stalls – are also close by.

For those who love the great outdoors, what better way to spend the weekend than exploring the nature this neighbourhood has to offer at Cranford Park or Minet Country Park, both less than 10 minutes away. What's more, one of the last surviving country estates in London, Osterley Park and House, is within easy reach of the development.

Hayes' very own Beck Theatre, which hosts a range of the finest local, national and international companies and performers in its 600-seat venue, is less than a 10-minute drive from the development. What's more, nestled in Barra Hall Park, you'll find Barra Hall Open Air Theatre – which you can also reach in less than 10 minutes from Hayes Village.

The Consumer Code

The Consumer Code for Home Builders ("the Code"), which came into effect in April 2010, applies to all home builders registered with the UK's main new Home Warranty Bodies: NHBC, Premier Guarantee and LABC Warranty.

The Code gives protection and rights to purchasers of new homes. It requires all new home buyers to be treated fairly and ensure they are fully informed about their purchase before and after they sign the contract.

The aim of the Code is for all new home buyers to:

- be treated fairly
- know what levels of service to expect
- be given reliable information about their purchase and their consumer rights before and after they move in
- know how to access speedy, low-cost dispute resolution arrangements to deal with complaints about breaches of the Code.

The Code reinforces best practice among home builders to encourage a consistently high level of information and customer service. It builds on successful efforts already made by the industry to improve consumer satisfaction in recent years.

The Code covers every stage of the home-buying purchase – pre-contract, exchange of contract and during occupation.

As a 5 Star Housebuilder, we are committed to the Consumer Code for Home Builders. For more information on the Consumer Code for Home Builders, please visit <http://www.consumercode.co.uk/>
